Day 2: Buenos Aires

This is a premium shared city tour. Throughout the tour you will enjoy an audiovisual experience prior to each stop, the bus will turn into a micro-cinema and you will see a series of 5-minute video-clips. You will see Evita speaking to the crowd from the Casa Rosada, or the Argentines celebrating the return of democracy. The tour explores the busy centre, including the Plaza de Mayo, where the Casa Rosada Presidential Palace is located; trendy Palermo and the working-class South, such as the famous La Boca and San Telmo districts, heartland of the Tango; and the elegant neighbourhoods of Recoleta & Puerto Madero.

This evening you be collected at the hotel for a tango show at the Café de los Angelitos tango hall in Abasto, in VIP seats. Founded in 1890, this emblematic corner café was frequented by the most famous figures in Argentine tango—Carlos Gardel, José Razzano, Florencio Parravicini — and today it has an excellent tango show in honour of their memory. The show includes dinner and drinks, and returned private transfers.
